

The Forum

practical information

At the end of the third year of the Lab Inclusive Culture, a forum will take place to co-write a charter for accessibility to culture and to cultural institutions.

What is it ?

Based on the results of the research and elements collected during the co-writing workshops throughout the year, participants will be invited to take ownership of the content and give recommendations for the drafting of the charter.

- The 8th of October 2019 ←
- 200 invited guests (LAB co-researchers, activists, ← cultural institutions, experts, officials and elected officials)
- Sponsored by the Canadian Commission for UNESCO ←

How ?

Exchanges between participants from various backgrounds will be facilitated thanks to creative and playful methods proposed by the Exeko team and its practice of intellectual mediation. Let's remind ourselves that "intellectual mediation" is a philosophical and pedagogical practice that consists in creating egalitarian conditions for collective reflection and knowledge sharing. These egalitarian conditions create frameworks enabling the co-construction of critical thinking and social analysis where pre-existing conditions could hinder their application.
